

Electronic Email Communication

All electronic communication must be sent both to and from a Moravian University email account. Students are encouraged to check their email accounts daily to remain informed of pertinent information related to their program of study as well as university events.