Moravian College head softball coach John Byrne and his staff of assistant coaches Scot Dapp, Scott Hoke, Ron Cardinal, Becky Stroup and Erin Kelly have been named the 2003 National Fastpitch Coaches Association Division III East Region Coaching Staff of the Year announced May 15th at the banquet prior to the NCAA Division III Softball National Championship in Salem, Virginia. Byrne and the rest of the staff led Moravian to a 32-10 record this season, the squad's fourth consecutive Commonwealth Conference Championship and the program's sixth straight NCAA Division III Tournament berth. The Greyhounds had their best-ever finish at the regional, finishing as the runner-up after winning their first three games of the tournament. Moravian entered the 2003 season without a senior on the roster and many expected the year to be a rebuilding campaign for Byrne and his staff after graduating seven seniors in 2002.

Sophomore shortstop Heather Bortz (Allentown, PA/Parkland HS) of the Moravian College softball team has been named to the 2003 Louisville Slugger/National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-American Second Team announced May 15th at the banquet prior to the NCAA Division III Softball National Championship in Salem, Virginia. Bortz, who is the first Moravian player to receive national All-American accolades, is one of 45 players that have been named to the 2003 Louisville Slugger/NFCA Division III All-American first, second and third teams. NFCA-member NCAA Division III coaching representatives, based on nominations from the 2003 season, selected all three teams. Bortz led the Greyhounds to a 32-10 record this season and a runner-up finish at the 2003 NCAA Regional, Moravian's best-ever finish in the NCAA Division III Tournament. Moravian won its fourth consecutive Commonwealth Conference Championship and earned its sixth straight berth in the NCAA Tournament. Bortz was one of two players from the Middle Atlantic Corporation to earn All-American accolades and she was one of five players from the East Region selected as an All-American. Bortz led Moravian at the plate this season with a .496 batting average, the third highest single season in school history. Bortz set the school record with 67 hits during the year, and she became the fastest player in school history to reach 100 hits. She currently has 117 hits after two seasons. Bortz also contributed 29 runs scored, 18 RBIs, 11 walks, ten stolen bases, six doubles, three triples and a home run, which was an inside-the-park grand slam in the NCAA Regional. Bortz had an on-base percentage of .531 this spring, and she was one of the toughest players in the country to strikeout with just three strikeouts in 135 at-bats this year. In the field, Bortz made 84 putouts and 69 assists while committing just eight errors from her shortstop position. Other awards for Bortz this spring include the Co-Commonwealth Conference Player of the Year, Commonwealth All-Conference First Team, NFCA All-East Region First Team, NCAA Regional All-Tournament Team and Lehigh Valley Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women Player of the Year.

30 GREYHOUNDS NAMED TO MIDDLE ATLANTIC CORPORATION SPRING ALL-ACADEMIC TEAM

ANNVILLE, PA — Moravian College's spring athletic teams have placed 30 student-athletes on the Middle Atlantic Corporation Spring All-Academic Team released by the MAC office this week with all seven of Moravian's spring sports having at least one member recognized including 12 from the Middle Atlantic Conference Champion women's outdoor track & field squad.

To be eligible for the MAC All-Academic Team, a student-athlete must be a starter or significant reserve, a sophomore, junior or senior and maintain a 3.2 grade-point average.

In addition to the 12 selections from the women's track and field team, the men's track and field team had five members honored while the softball and women's lacrosse squads each had four honorees. The baseball team placed three student-athletes on the MAC All-Academic Team while the golf and men's tennis squads each had one selection.

Leading the women's outdoor track and field team was junior Christina Scherwin (Copenhagen, Denmark), the defending NCAA Division III Champion in the javelin. Scherwin will be competing at the 2003 NCAA Division III National Championships hosted by St. Lawrence University this weekend in the javelin and the shot put. Scherwin won the MAC titles in the discus, javelin and shot put. She captured the discus with a toss of 43.56 meters (142 feet, 11 inches), and Scherwin won the shot put with an MAC record toss of 14.31 meters (46 feet, 11 inches) for the second consecutive year. Scherwin also won the javelin for a second straight spring with a distance of 49.24 meters (161 feet, seven inches). She earned First Team All-Conference honors for all her championships.
