08-09 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Welcome to another exciting year of Music@Moravian. The calendar includes a diverse line-up of fabulous concerts for your listening pleasure. Here are some highlights just to give you an idea of what we've got planned:

The Back Bay Saxophone Quartet

Since its founding in 2001, the Back Bay Saxophone Quartet has engaged audiences from Massachusetts to New Jersey with its broadly accessible and virtuosic performances.

*The Back Bay Saxophone Quartet:
Saturday, Sept. 6*

Voloshky

This dynamic ensemble draws from a repertoire of more than forty traditional Dances representing every region of the Ukraine.

*Voloshky Ukrainian Dance
Ensemble: Saturday, Sept. 13*

*"Noche de Muertos" – Sol y Canto:
Wednesday, Oct. 22*

Noche de Muertos: Welcoming Our Ancestors Home

Melodic Vision joins Boston Music Award –winning Latin music ambassador Sol y Canto in a first-ever collaboration to illuminate one of Mexico's favorite holidays, Day of the Dead. Celebrated in early November.

Deborah Voigt

One of the leading dramatic singers today, be sure to come and hear Soprano, Deborah Voigt as she presents American Songbook.

*Deborah Voigt, Soprano:
Wednesday, Nov. 12*

Québécois

QUÉBÉCITÉ, a jazz opera, is a simple love story: four people meet, pair off, divorce, and wed. They have all found each other in the city of Quebec, which has often been at the crux of national debates about identity and belonging.

Québécois: Wednesday, Feb. 18
