About Tonight's Game: The Moravian College men's basketball team welcomes The Catholic University of America to Bethlehem this evening for a Landmark Conference match-up here at Johnston Hall. The Greyhounds recently wrapped up their 34th Annual Greyhound Starters Classic, in which they fell to Albright College, 76-71, in the championship game. Junior guards D.J. Strayhorn and Garrett Johnson were named to the All-Tournament team.

Strayhorn leads Moravian in points per game (18.9), steals (23) and free throw percentage at .892 (33-of-37). He also ranks second in assists with 30 and in three-pointers with 13, and he is shooting .466 (62-of-133) from the field. Johnson is second on the squad with 12.7 points per contest to go with his 4.5 rebounds per game. He also has a team-high 40 assists and 17 three-pointers to go with his 18 steals and six blocks.

Senior forward Jeff Cullinan is bringing down 5.2 rebounds per game to go with his 8.8 points per game and 11 three-pointers while classmate forward Marcus Hardy is leading the Greyhounds with 6.7 boards per game to go with his 5.2 points a game. Sophomore guard Kenny Gula is averaging 7.4 points per contest, and has 18 assists and ten three-pointers on the year.

There will be an alumni game starting at noon.

The Greyhounds are back in action tomorrow as they host conference foe Goucher College at 2 p.m. here at Johnston Hall. Prior to that game, Moravian's last win was back on February 15, 2009, by a score of 93-82. The Cardinals have a four-game win streak over the Greyhounds.

The Cardinals have been outscoring and out-rebounding their opponents by an average of 13.8 points and 12.4 boards per game.

The men's basketball team would like to thank the following people for supporting the program - Slam Dunk Club - Dave Corrigan '57, Scott Hoke '86 & the 3-Point Club - Robert '53 and Joan Engelbrecht, Rob Wehmeyer '93.
