The Greyhounds rallied from a 5-0 first inning deficit for a 7-6, nine-inning victory over Chapman (CA) University in the first game of the 2004 World Series. The Panthers scored five times in the bottom of the first inning off of Moravian starter, sophomore Meagan Hennessy (Freehold, NJ/Freehold Township HS). Moravian, which had loaded the bases in the second inning, got on the board in the top of the fourth inning. Sophomore designated player Richelle McWilliams (Riegelsville, PA/Easton HS) led off the inning with a double to dead center field. Freshman LeeAnna Roberts (Meshoppen, PA/Elk Lake HS) came into pinch run for McWilliams and moved to third on a sacrifice bunt by freshman catcher Danielle Carrione (Bloomfield, NJ/Mt. St. Dominic HS). After a ground out, senior outfielder Jessica Esposito (Madison, NJ/Madison HS) delivered an RBI single to center field to cut Chapman's lead to 5-1. However, the Panthers would regain their five-run lead in the bottom of the sixth inning on an RBI suicide squeeze bunt to make the score 6-1. The Greyhounds, who had also left the bases loaded in the fifth inning, would tie the game and force extra-innings with a five-run inning of their own in the top of the seventh inning, knotting the score at 6-6. Junior shortstop Heather Bortz (Allentown, PA/Parkland HS) reached on an error to lead off the inning and moved to second on a single by senior pinch hitter Jenn Hastings (Pottstown, PA/Owen J. Roberts HS). Senior third baseman Janelle Brey (Allentown, PA/Dieruff HS) loaded the bases with a single. Senior outfielder Melissa Soroka (Newton, NJ/Pope John XXII HS) grounded into a fielder's choice to score Bortz. Junior second baseman Leah Holmes (Clarks Green, PA/Abington Heights HS), who had come back into the game after Hastings reached second base, scored on a the third of three consecutive wild pitches that also allowed Soroka to move to third base. McWilliams drew a walk to put runners on the corners with one out. Junior Stephanie Eddinger (Allentown, PA/Parkland HS) came into pinch run for McWilliams. After a Panther pitching change, Carrione hit a deep fly ball down the left field line for a sacrifice fly to score Soroka, cutting Chapman's lead to 6-4. Freshman first baseman Lauren Homa (Chalfont, PA/Central Bucks West HS) followed with a two-run home run to left field, her second homer of the season, to tie the game at 6-6. With one out in the top of the ninth inning, Eddinger, who remained in the game as the designated player, walked and moved to second base on a sacrifice by Carrione. Eddinger moved to third on a passed ball, using a back door slide to beat the throw. Homa followed with a single to center field to score Eddinger with the winning run. For the second straight day, Moravian rallied from an early deficit late in the game to force extra innings in a 6-5, 11-inning victory over fourth seeded Salisbury (MD) University at the 2004 Division III World Series. Salisbury jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning on a pair of RBI singles. The Sea Gulls extended their lead to 3-0 in the top of the third inning on an RBI double. With two outs in the sixth, Homa singled to left field and moved to second on a wild pitch. Esposito drew a walk and was pinch run for by senior Megan Smith (Phillipsburg, NJ/Belvidere HS). Junior outfielder Krissy Cianfichi (Warrington, PA/Central Bucks East HS) also drew a walk to load the bases for Bortz. Bortz ripped a two RBI single to the gap in right centerfield and was thrown out trying to reach third base after a Salisbury error but not before all three runs had crossed the plate to tie the game at 5-5. In the extra innings, each team had chances to score with Salisbury stranding runners at third base in the seventh, eighth and 11th innings. The Tommies scored the only run they would need in the third inning on a solo home run to deep left field. St. Thomas added a run in the fourth inning on an RBI single. The Tommies scored twice in the sixth inning on a two-RBI single, and St. Thomas finished off the scoring with an RBI single in the top of the seventh inning. Moravian had just three hits, all infield singles, by Brey, Esposito and Homa. The closest Moravian came to scoring was in the fifth inning when Homa and Esposito hit back-to-back singles and moved to second and third on a wild pitch with one out. However, Cianfichi and Bortz struck out to end the inning. Hennessy dropped to 21-3 on the season, allowing five runs on eight hits and two walks while striking out eight batters.
