About Moravian College

Moravian College is a private, selective, liberal arts institution located in the heart of the Lehigh Valley in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Founded in 1742, it is recognized as the sixth-oldest college in the country. Enrollment is approximately 1,500 undergraduates each year, which maintains a favorable faculty to student ratio, small class size, and emphasis on personalized teaching.

Moravian College believes its mission is to integrate a liberal arts education with preparation for life, enriching students in and out of the classroom. Moravian aims to give its students a foundation for careers or graduate/professional school, for continued lifelong learning, and for a values-oriented approach to society.

With over 50 different programs of study and more than 70 clubs and organizations, Moravian offers flexibility and diversity among all academic and extracurricular areas. The College grants the Bachelor of Art, Bachelor of Music, and Bachelor of Science degrees.

On the athletic fields, Moravian’s 20 men’s and women’s varsity teams have a winning tradition. During the 2008-09 school year, Moravian teams won six Landmark Conference championships with 14 teams reaching post-season play including NCAA Championship berths for the women’s soccer, women’s basketball and softball teams and ECAC Championships for the men’s and women’s outdoor track & field teams. In addition, ten student-athletes earned All-America status, including one ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American and one national champion in track & field.

A Division III institution, Moravian has excellent athletics facilities, including the venerable Johnston Hall, Breidag Fieldhouse, and the Steel Field athletics complex, including Sportexe Turf on Rocco Calvo Field and an eight-lane, Olympic-quality Mondo track, both installed in 2005.

The College has a strong sense of identity and purpose firmly rooted in a long and rich tradition. Both in and out of the classroom, Moravian and its students maintain that tradition.

Head Coach Eric Lambinus

Eric Lambinus has begun his 11th season at head women’s soccer coach at his alma mater. In his first 10 years, Lambinus has led the women’s squad to a 121-58-14 mark, six playoff berths including berths in the NCAA Division III National Championship Tournament in 2005, 2007, and 2008, the program’s first-ever conference title in the 2008 Landmark Conference Tournament, six conference tournament appearances, and a berth in the 2003 ECAC Mid-Atlantic Championship match.

Luminbush also coached the Moravian men’s team during his first 10 years, leading the squad to a 76-101-15 record, their first playoff appearance in ten years, four Commonwealth Conference playoff berths and two ECAC Tournament appearances. This fall is the first year Lambinus will focus on the women’s team.

Lambinus graduated from Moravian in 1994 after an outstanding athletic career. On the soccer field, Lambinus was a four-time All-Mid-Atlantic Conference All-Star and led the team to a MAC Southern Division Championship. He also earned MAC All-Academic honors as well as Mid-Atlantic Region Academic and All-American honors. He also played tennis at Moravian and served as team captain for both soccer and tennis and was the soccer team’s MVP as a junior and senior. Lambinus scored 88 points in his soccer career with 33 goals and 22 assists.

A former professional soccer player and captain of the Reading Rage Soccer Team, Lambinus earned his Bachelor’s of Arts degree from Moravian and completed the Master of Health and Physical Education program at East Stroudsburg University of Pennsylvania in May of 1999.

2009 Season Preview

Expectations are high again this season for the Moravian College women’s soccer team with the 2009 squad returning 19 letterwinners and eight starters from last year’s 14-6-2 team. Last season, the Greyhounds reached the first round of the 2008 NCAA Division III National Championship Tournament, the team’s second straight NCAA appearance, and the squad captured the Landmark Conference Championship, the first conference title in school history.

Head Coach Eric Lambinus is going into his 11th year as coach of the squad, and he feels that the team can get back into the NCAA Championship Tournament with some hard work and leadership from his returning players.

Leading the Greyhounds will be sophomore Arielle Caldas (Cherry Hill, NJ/Cherry Hill West HS), who had 11 goals last season and three assists totaling 25 points. Of Caldas’s 11 goals, she netted five-game winning goals and was named Landmark Conference Rookie of the Year. Senior midfielder Alessandra Valdetara (Butler, NJ/Butler HS) and junior forward Jenelle Mirro (Bath, PA/Notre Dame HS) both found the back of the net six times and four assists each, totaling at 16 points.

Junior midfielder Shannon McEvoy (Lafayette, NJ/High Point HS) recorded two goals and three assists a year ago while senior forward Amanda Friedman (Randolph, NJ Randolph HS) contributed two goals and an assist. Sophomore midfielder Kim Mogg (Whippany, NJ/Whippany Park HS) had five assists on the season. Senior midfielder Jeri-Anne Weiss (Allentown, PA/Salisbury HS) found the back of the net twice. Sophomore defenders Diana Feldmann (York, PA/Central York HS) and Elizabeth Brundage (Clinks Summit, PA/Abington Heights HS) each had one goal last fall with Brundage contributing one assist each and Feldmann with two.

Contributing one goal each last season were senior midfielder Brittney Deiling (Chews Landing, NJ/Triton Regional HS), senior defender Terri Roberts (Dayville, PA/Davieville HS) and sophomore defender Kim Mogg (Stamford, CT/West Hill HS). Also expected to help out this fall is sophomore defender Kristin Povope (Roseto, PA/Bangor HS).

Returning in goal are junior Sarah Halpin (Downstowng, PA/Downstown West HS) and sophomore Mikki Ruvolis (Allentown, PA/Saucon Valley HS). Halpin had six saves in 121 minutes of play and Ruvolis played 66 minutes.

Coach Lambinus has brought another talented recruiting class to Moravian College that looks to help the returning Greyhounds earn a berth into the Landmark Conference Tournament and battle back into the NCAA Tournament. Moravian will open its 2009 season on Tuesday, September 1st in a non-conference match at Ursinus College. The Greyhounds will begin defense of their Landmark Conference Championship on Saturday, September 26th when they host Drew University.
