About Moravian College

Moravian College is a private, selective, liberal arts institution located in the heart of the Lehigh Valley in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Founded in 1742, it is recognized as the sixth-oldest college in the country. Enrollment is approximately 1,500 undergraduates each year, which maintains a favorable faculty to student ratio, small class size, and emphasis on personalized teaching.

Moravian believes its mission is to integrate a liberal arts education with preparation for life, enriching students in and out of the classroom. Moravian aims to attract students to a foundation for careers or graduate/professional school, for continued lifelong learning, and for a values-oriented approach to society.

With over 50 different programs of study and more than 70 clubs and organizations, Moravian offers flexibility and diversity among academic and extracurricular areas. The College grants the Bachelor of Art, Bachelor of Music, and Bachelor of Science degrees.

On the athletic field, Moravian’s 18 men’s and women’s varsity teams have a winning tradition. During the 2009-10 school year, Moravian’s teams won seven Landmark Conference championships, including women’s soccer and softball teams. In addition, 13 student-athletes earned All-America status with three national champions in track & field.

2010 Season Preview

Expectations are high again this season for the Moravian College women’s soccer team with the 2010 squad returning 15 letterwinners and eight starters from last year’s 8-8-2 team. Last season, the Greyhounds reached the quarterfinals of the Eastern College Athletic Conference South Championship Tournament.

First-year head coach Brienne Smith has a strong returning corps of players in her debut season.

Leading the Greyhounds will be junior forward Arielle Caldas (Cherry Hill, NJ/Cherry Hill West HS), who had a team leading 13 goals and assists for 29 points. Caldas, who missed five matches due to injury, also had three game-winning goals.

Also returning up front is senior forward Shannon McEvo- voy (Lafayette, NJ/High Point HS), who earned a spot on the Landmark All-Conference Second Team after contributing five goals and assists for 15 points. Senior Jenelle Mirro (Bath, PA/Notre Dame HS) also returns after being limited to a goal in nine match last season.

Senior Emily Rodrigues (Bethlehem, PA/Lycoming) will anchor the midfield for Moravian after earning Landmark All-Conference Second Team accolades last season while posting a team high seven assists. Junior midfielder Kim Gogel (Whippany, NJ/Whippany Park HS) has a goal and four assists for six points in 2009 while senior Tara Alberse (New Providence, NJ/New Providence HS) had two goals and an assist for five points.

Junior midfielder Jenna Stickel (Hillsborough, NJ/Hillsborough HS) played in every match in her first season last fall and had one assist while junior midfielder Kristin Popovice (Roseto, PA/Bangor HS) will anchor the mid-field for Moravian after earning Landmark All-Conference First Team honors last season. Feldmann contributed two goals and two assists for six points while sophomore defender Eileen Black (Branchburg, NJ/Somerville HS) was named to the Landmark All-Conference Second Team with two goals and an assist for five points in her debut season.

Senior defender Kaitlyn Russell (South River, NJ/South River HS) and junior defender Kim Mogg (Stamford, CT/West Hill HS) add depth to the Greyhounds’ defense. Senior goalkeeper Diana Feldmann (York, PA/Central York HS) has a goal and four assists for six points in 2009 while senior goalie Popovice (Roseto, PA/Bangor HS) had one goal.

Junior David Miao (York, PA/Penn Central York HS) will anchor Moravian’s defense after earning Landmark All-Conference First Team honors last season.
