2026 ANNUAL SECURITY AND FIRE SAFETY REPORT

CONTAINS DATA FOR 2023, 2024 & 2025

POLICY STATEMENTS FOR COMPILING THE ANNUAL SECURITY REPORT, SECURITY AND ACCESS TO CAMPUS FACILITIES, AND LAW ENFORCEMENT & JURISDICTION

About Us

Moravian University, Lancaster Campus, previously known as the Lancaster Theological Seminary, founded in 1825 at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, is a richly diverse and dynamic graduate school of theology located in the historic city of Lancaster, Pennsylvania. In 2021, Moravian University partnered with the Lancaster Theological Seminary, and in 2022, Moravian University opened a dedicated space in the Seminary library to introduce online programs to Lancaster area residents. To learn more about this partnership, please visit moravian.edu/lancaster.

Campus safety and security at Moravian University, Lancaster Campus, hereinafter referred to as MULC is a shared responsibility of all members of our campus community. The best protection against campus crime is an aware, informed, alert campus community, with students, faculty, and staff who use reason and caution. While the MULC and surrounding neighborhood are described as a "low crime" area, crime does occasionally occur, despite our best efforts to prevent it. MULC does not have its own Police Department or Public Safety Office; however, the Moravian University Police Department, located at 119 W. Greenwich Street, Bethlehem PA, 18018, is staffed 24 hours a day, and can be reached by calling 610-861-1421. Additionally, effective July 1, 2025, Moravian University entered into an agreement with Franklin & Marshall College, under which Franklin & Marshall will assume responsibility for providing police patrol and related law enforcement services at MULC. Additionally, the Lancaster Bureau of Police will be available to assist Franklin and Marshall College Department of Public Safety with police related incidents and emergencies.

Members of the MULC community, or any other person authorized to be present on the campus, should report any suspected criminal activity or other emergency that poses a threat to life or property.

- If immediate danger to life or property exists, dial 911 to summon the Franklin and Marshall College Department of Public Safety and/or Lancaster City Bureau of Police.
- If immediate danger is not present, contact the Franklin and Marshall College Department of Public Safety via their non-emergency #: 717-358-3939.

The Moravian University Police Department is an additional resource for the MULC community and is available to assist with many of the areas outlined in this report. The information provided in this document highlights our commitment to campus safety and security, as well as compliance with federal laws, including but not limited to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (The Clery Act), and the Pennsylvania Uniform Crime Reporting Act (formerly known as the College and University Security Information Act). It is meant to be used as a resource for all members of our campus community. If you have any comments, questions, or concerns about federal or state law requirements or MULC's compliance with these laws, please contact the Vice President of Operations & Finance at 717-290-8713 or the Moravian University Police Department, hereinafter referred to as the MUPD, by calling 610-861-1421.

Policies for Preparing the Annual Security Report

The Federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act (commonly referred to as the "Clery Act"), requires public and private colleges and universities to disclose information about certain crimes that occur on or near campus. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Act 180 (commonly referred to as the "Uniform Crime Reporting Act") requires institutions of higher education to provide students and employees with information relating to crime statistics and security measures and to provide similar information to prospective students and employees upon request. The Annual Security and Fire Safety Report (hereinafter referred to as the ASR) fulfills the requirements of these acts via the publication and distribution of information regarding crimes occurring at institutions of higher education. Additionally, institutions of higher education are required to keep an open crime log and fire log regarding incidents occurring at their institutions.

At Moravian University, the ASR is prepared using a collaborative approach including members of the MUPD, Equal Opportunity and Title IX, Division of Student Life, stakeholders at MULC, and local criminal justice agencies, and requires the compilation of crimes reported throughout the previous calendar year. Campus crime, arrest, and referral statistics include those reported to the MUPD, stakeholders at MULC, to designated campus officials, and/or to local criminal justice agencies. The statistical data contained within this report refers to the number of crimes reported, not necessarily the outcome of the investigations into those reported crimes. The data is also broken down into crimes that have occurred on campus, as well as on public property and non-campus buildings around campus. Once completed, the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report is published and made available to the campus community. The report is also posted on the Moravian University Police Department website at https://www.moravian.edu/campuspolice. An email is sent to students, faculty, and staff members once the Annual Report is posted. This email includes the web address and information on how to obtain a hard-copy of the report. The crime statistics in the Annual Report are submitted to the Department of Education, which is made available to the general public through the Department of Education website.

Security & Access

As mentioned in the mission statement of the MUPD, maintaining the physical security and surroundings of the campus is a top priority. There are video security cameras in operation throughout MULC, at both exterior and interior locations. Security cameras may be in operation in the common areas, generally defined as space designated for group use and control. Examples of common space include living rooms, lounges, TV rooms, hallways, stairs, laundry rooms, and kitchens. Personal space, generally defined as space designated for individual control and use, such as bedrooms, are not monitored via security cameras.

As a private institution, MULC restricts access to and presence in all residence halls to students, faculty, staff, and guests. All residence locations are accessed using room keys, which are issued to residents when they move into the unit. The loss of a key must be reported to the Facilities personnel or on-site housing manager as soon as possible. Possession or use of any key by anyone other than the person to whom it has been issued is not allowed and will result in disciplinary action.

During business hours, MULC (excluding housing facilities) will be open to students, employees, contractors, guests, and invitees. During non-business hours, access to all Seminary facilities is by key, FOB device, or by Facilities personnel.

The use of MULC facilities is given to University groups and by approved non-University organizations under certain circumstances. Permission to use these facilities does not constitute University endorsement of the activities held in the facilities.

Law Enforcement & Jurisdiction

Effective July 1, 2025, Moravian University entered into an agreement with Franklin & Marshall College, under which the Franklin & Marshall Department of Public Safety assumed responsibility for providing police patrol and related law enforcement services at MULC. These services have been provided in lieu of Moravian University continuing to perform those functions.

Authority to Arrest & Relationships

a. Sworn members of the Franklin and Marshall College Department of Public Safety shall have the power and the authority to enforce laws of this Commonwealth while on MULC property.

b. Sworn officers also have the power and authority to perform the functions of an officer anywhere within the primary jurisdiction as to:

    i. Any offense the officer views or otherwise has probable cause to believe a person committed within their primary jurisdiction.

ii. Any other event which occurs within their primary jurisdiction and which reasonably requires action on the part of the police to preserve order, to protect or defend persons or property, or otherwise to maintain the peace and dignity of this Commonwealth.

Monitoring & Reporting of Criminal Activity

Periodically, the MUPD receives information from the Franklin and Marshall College Department of Public Safety regarding criminal offenses that occurred in the vicinity of MULC.

Off-campus Student Organizations

MULC does not have any officially recognized student organizations.

REPORTING POLICY STATEMENTS

Accurate and Prompt Reporting

All members of the MULC community are expected to contribute to the safety of themselves and others, and are encouraged to report all crimes and emergencies in a timely manner. A criminal offense can be reported in person, by contacting a Franklin and Marshall College Department of Public Safety Officer, or by responding to the Franklin and Marshall College Department of Public Safety located at 609 Old Main Drive, Lancaster, PA 17603, and/or telephonically by calling 911 or dial 717-358-3939, 24-hours a day.

Criminal offenses can also be reported to the Moravian University Police Department by calling 610-861-1421 or on-line by visiting the Campus Police website, clicking on "Reporting an Incident" and completing the Crime Reporting Form and/or the Equal Opportunity and Title IX Reporting Form for incidents of sexual violence.

Keep in mind that crimes in progress or emergency situations should be immediately reported to the Franklin and Marshall College Department of Public Safety as outlined above.

Reporting of Criminal Offenses

Campus Security Authorities

In 1990, Congress passed the Campus Awareness and Campus Security Act. This legislation was followed by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act in 1998.

Regulations associated with these acts require institutions such as MULC to report specific information about certain on-campus crimes that have been reported to local police agencies or to any official of the institution with significant responsibility for student and campus activities (Campus Security Authority).

The law defines “Campus Security Authority” as: “An official of an institution who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities, including, but not limited to, student housing, student discipline, and campus judicial proceedings.” An example would be a dean of students who oversees student housing, a student center, or student extra-curricular activities and has significant responsibility for student and campus activities. Similarly, a director of athletics, team coach, and faculty advisor to a student group also has significant responsibility for student and campus activities. A single teaching faculty member is unlikely to have significant responsibility for student and campus activities, except when serving as an advisor to a student group. Clerical staff, as well, is unlikely to have significant responsibility for student and campus activities.

Where applicable, the following MULC employees and students have a reporting obligation as a Campus Security Authority:

- The President
- All Members of President's Staff
- All Student Life Administrators*
- All Staff in Diversity, Equity & Inclusion/ Global Education
- Equal Opportunity and Title IX Coordinator/Civil Rights Investigators

- All Campus Police Officers and Dispatchers
- All Faculty/Staff Advisors to Student Organizations
- All Faculty/Staff Advisors to Study/Travel Abroad

Voluntary Confidential Reporting

Individuals who wish to make an anonymous report, including reports of suspicious activity, hate crimes, or incidents involving bias or sexual violence, can do so by dialing the Anonymous Tip Line at 610-861-1539. This Tip Line is for information gathering purposes only and is not intended for use to report crimes in progress or emergency situations. It is not monitored 24 hours a day.

Procedures for Confidential Reporting

*Chaplain(s) and licensed professionals in Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) are designated as confidential sources and are exempt from this reporting obligation. Licensed professionals in the Health Center are also designated as a confidential resource but are required to report statistics to Campus Police in aggregate form, while maintaining the anonymity of the victim.

Annually, the Seminary distributes notice to the campus of the list of CSAs and their roles in reporting crimes. Each CSA is reminded of their designation and participates in either an in person or online training to understand this obligation and how to appropriately report crimes at the Seminary.

Official is defined as any person who has the authority and the duty to act or respond to particular issues on behalf of the institution.

Definitions/Related Information

Pastoral Counselor	A person who is associated with a religious order or denomination, is recognized by that religious order or denomination as someone who provides confidential counseling, and is functioning within the scope of that recognition as a pastoral counselor.
Professional Counselor	A person whose official responsibilities include providing mental health counseling to members of the institution's community and who is functioning within the scope of the counselor's license or certification.

TIMELY WARNINGS POLICY STATEMENT

The Clery Act (Jeanne Clery Campus Safety Act) requires institutions to give timely warnings of crimes that represent a threat to the safety of students and employees. Crimes required to be reported by the Clery Act include (as defined by the Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook): criminal homicide, including murder, nonnegligent manslaughter, and negligent manslaughter; sexual offenses, forcible and non-forcible; robbery; aggravated assault; burglary; arson; motor vehicle theft; domestic violence; dating violence; stalking; hate crimes; hazing; and arrests and/or disciplinary referrals for liquor-law violations, drug-law violations, and illegal weapons possession.

Such notifications are provided by a broadcast email message through the institution's email service in order to alert students, faculty, and staff in a timely manner to situations or crimes that may represent a serious or ongoing threat to the campus community, to heighten safety awareness, and, depending on the circumstances, to solicit information that may lead to an arrest and conviction. The name(s) of any victim(s) are confidential and will not be included in any such notification. While every attempt is made to issue reasonably prompt notice, releases are subject to the availability of accurate facts concerning the incident.

Like most institutions, Moravian University considers it important to send notices when necessary but not frivolously, given that the key to the effectiveness of a timely notice is that the notice itself is something out of the ordinary. Situations are evaluated on a case-by-case basis in order to determine whether there exists a serious or ongoing threat to the institutional community. Instances of a violent crime occurring between two individuals who know each other are also evaluated in this manner.

Timely notifications typically include the following information:

- A succinct statement of the incident.
- Any connection to previous incidents.
- Physical description and/or composite drawing of the suspect, if appropriate.
- Date and time the bulletin was released.
- Other relevant and important information.
- Appropriate safety tips.

When an incident occurs on campus which may merit a timely warning, the highest-ranking police officer on campus at that time is empowered to decide whether or not one is merited and, if so, what the appropriate level of warning is given the situation, consulting with the Chief of Police as necessary and possible. The officer or the dispatcher will issue the notification themself if no additional consultation is deemed necessary due to low threat level or limited potential for harm (e.g., a situation of a rash of car break-ins).

In situations of greater concern or potential impact, when time permits, Campus Police consults with Student Life and with the President's Office in order to decide whether such notice is advisable, taking into account the nature of the threat, the extent of the risk, the population at risk, and whether there is another, possibly even more effective, way to minimize the risk of reoccurrence of the incident (e.g., a situation of alleged sexual assault).

When a situation appears to pose an imminent, significant threat of personal injuries or property damage (e.g., a situation involving a bomb threat), the emergency notification system will be deployed by the Moravian University Police Department. The university emergency notification system (Moravian_Alert) will be used only for situations involving an imminent, significant threat for large-scale personal injuries or property damage. It may also be used to announce weather closings and delays. The system consists of a five-tier communications sequence, activated in the following order: (1) siren/public address message, (2) text message, (3) e-mail, (4) web posting, and (5) voicemail, as deemed appropriate.

The Campus Police conduct two annual tests of the Timely Notification and Emergency Moravian Alert Systems. These tests are conducted to ensure the notification systems in place are working properly. Testing includes: sending an alert message via SMS, computer monitors/screens, email and setting off the audible siren. In cooperation with our Moravian University Information Technology Department, we are able to broadcast our Moravian Alert.

Definitions/Related Information

Institutions must issue a timely warning for any Clery Act crime that occurs within Clery geography that is:

- Reported to campus security authorities or local police agencies; and
- Is considered by the institution to represent a serious or continuing threat to students and employees.

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION & EVACUATION POLICY STATEMENT

Policies for Emergency Notification & Evacuation

Emergencies are reported through the Moravian_Alert System on the campus network, and on AMOS. If there is a crisis, important information will be posted here, such as announcements, news releases, and instructions to students, parents, employees and the media.

Moravian University has an Emergency Response Plan, designed to provide contingency procedures for Moravian University administrators to follow in the event of campus emergencies. While the plan does not cover every conceivable situation, it does supply the basic administrative guidelines necessary to cope with most campus emergencies.

Only members of the University's Emergency Response Team have copies of the full emergency response manual. Since it is impractical to establish policies and procedures to cover every aspect and variety of emergency situation, the directions are advisory only. The individuals directly involved at the outset of the emergency must exercise their judgment and discernment to the best interests of all concerned. The procedures as outlined are intended to minimize potential risks to students, employees, the public, and property, while affording prompt reaction to restore campus order, and facility operations. All students and employees should apply to general safety practices and precautions at all times to minimize the potential for emergencies and provide continued efficient, economical operations. In case of emergency, staff and faculty are to take appropriate, immediate action and then make contact with the Campus Police by calling 610-861-1421. Do not leave a message. If you are for some reason unable to reach Campus Police, then please contact an appropriate vice president at the University.

Moravian University is committed to emergency preparedness. We feel strongly that it is important to have written plans to guide our response in crisis situations, to test these plans on occasion, and to be prepared to notify members of our campus community in the event of an emergency. While there can never be a guarantee of safety, we believe that such preparedness places the University in a better position from which to deal with the unexpected threats of today's world.

Developed over the past three decades, an emergency response protocol manual guides key responders and decision makers in times of crisis. This document, one which provides suggested protocols for more than 50 different types of possible emergencies, is reviewed and revised annually. Tabletop exercises are held annually. These drills are designed to expose a team, in this case, the Moravian University leadership team, to a simulated crisis situation in order to test the response reflexes and preparedness of the group and, as a consequence, determine how to react more effectively to real events. In recent years, scenarios have included those involving a hypothetical floor collapse at a party, a cyber attack, protest and high-profile sexual assault allegations, and immigration enforcement action on campus.

	Definition
Test	Regularly scheduled drills, exercises, and appropriate follow through activities, designed for assessment and evaluation of emergency plans and capabilities.

GENERAL PREVENTION & AWARENESS PROGRAMS STATEMENTS

Security Awareness Programs

Members of the MUPD, along with Student Life staff, Equal Opportunity and Title IX, and other campus organizations, periodically sponsor security awareness and educational programs. Programs concerned with security and safety address the topics of self-defense, rape and acquaintance-rape (date-rape) prevention, healthy relationships/intimate partner violence, alcohol awareness and the alcohol policy, legal liability, and bystander intervention. The Equal Opportunity and Title IX Coordinator disseminates policy and provides online training to all employees on their mandatory reporting obligations under federal law.

Crime Prevention Programs

Tips on crime prevention and safety can be reviewed on Campus Police website at: https://www.moravian.edu/campuspolice/services/safety-tips

DRUG, ALCOHOL, AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE POLICY STATEMENT

Drug, Alcohol, and Substance Abuse

Alcohol, Drugs and Firearms Policies

Moravian University recognizes that the role of alcohol consumption in our culture is reflected within the institutional environment. Without either condemning or condoning the use of alcoholic beverages, the institution subscribes to an alcohol policy based on the principle of responsible use of alcohol, which encourages individuals to maintain a lively social atmosphere in which alcohol is not the primary factor.

The consumption of alcohol has the potential for abuse, and the institutional community will neither tolerate nor encourage inappropriate use of alcohol. Therefore, the institution has developed guidelines to assure responsible conduct relating to the provision or consumption of alcoholic beverages by members of the campus community. Students and organizations violating these guidelines are subject to disciplinary action. Students and organizations violating public laws will not be shielded from the legal authority of public agencies responsible for enforcing federal, state, and local laws, even when institutional disciplinary action is taken as well.

Moravian University's alcohol policy complies with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's law on the consumption and furnishing of alcoholic beverages. The policy outlines procedures to be followed in the registration and monitoring of social events and prescribes action to be taken when the policy and procedures are not followed.

A full statement of the University Alcohol Policy is published online. The policy is also applicable to employees.

Moravian University prohibits the possession, use, and sale of illegal drugs and complies with the Drug-Free Workplace and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act. Substance abuse issues are addressed through the offering of topical programs during the academic year to provide members of the campus community with information concerning health risks, legal sanctions, and the like.

Unauthorized use or possession of firearms, other forms of hazardous devices, any form of fireworks, chemicals, explosives or potentially lethal weapons including martial arts materials on Seminary property is strictly prohibited. "Possession" includes storing the items listed in vehicles brought to campus.

DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, AND STALKING: PREVENTION POLICY STATEMENT

Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Non-Discrimination Policy (formerly Sexual Misconduct Policy)

In compliance with changes to federal Title IX regulations, Moravian University's Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Non-Discrimination Policy became effective August 14, 2020, available at https://www.moravian.edu/policy/harassment-discrimination. The institutional Sexual Misconduct Policy in place through August 13, 2020 has been archived.

Under the Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Non-Discrimination Policy, sexual misconduct, including sexual assault (inclusive of rape), sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence (inclusive of dating and domestic violence), and stalking are deemed violations of expected conduct for Moravian University students, subject to separation from the institution. Student survivors of sexual violence are urged to contact the Advocates for Survivors of Sexual Violence (484) 764-9242. Additional information can be found at https://www.moravian.edu/student-life/advocates.

Moravian University considers sexual assault (inclusive of rape), sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence (inclusive of dating and domestic violence), and stalking to be serious offenses, unacceptable within the institutions or any community. Offenders, whether faculty, staff or students, may be prosecuted under the Pennsylvania Crimes Code and also under the institutions' Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Non-Discrimination Policy.

Allegations against students are investigated by the institutions' Civil Rights team and adjudicated through Equity and Compliance by a trained hearing panel in a live hearing (within 106.30) or administrative hearing (outside 106.30).

The hearing panel determines whether a student has violated the institutional Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Non-Discrimination Policy and if so, determines sanctions. A preponderance of the evidence (or more likely than not standard) is used to determine responsibility and the finding must be supported by the majority of the members of the hearing panel.

Moravian University employs emergency removal as deemed appropriate using a violence risk assessment (VRA). If a student alleged to have engaged in sexual misconduct including sexual assault (inclusive of rape), sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence (inclusive of dating and domestic violence), and/or stalking, they are subject to action in accordance with the University's Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Non-Discrimination Policy. Such action may result in separation from the institution, including suspension or expulsion for students (or termination of employment for employees).

Procedurally, when Moravian University receives a report of sexual violence, gender-based violence, or other sex or gender discrimination, the Equal Opportunity and Title IX Coordinator is notified. If the complainant wishes to access local community agencies (including counseling and advocacy) and/or law enforcement for support, Moravian University will assist the complainant in making these contacts. The University's Advocates for Survivors of Sexual Violence are available 24/7 by phone or text during the Fall and Spring semesters. The Equal Opportunity and Title IX Coordinator will offer supportive measures to the complainant including contact limitations, academic, housing or workplace accommodations, visa and immigration assistance, referrals to counseling, medical and other support services, and other assistance as may be appropriate and available on campus or in the community. More information about supportive measures is available at https://www.moravian.edu/titleix/resources.

When a formal complaint is signed by the complainant or by the Equal Opportunity and Title IX Coordinator, Moravian University will initiate a prompt, fair and impartial investigation, which may lead to a disciplinary hearing and the imposition of sanctions, based upon a preponderance of evidence (more likely than not), upon the responding party. The Equal Opportunity and Title IX Coordinator is ultimately responsible to assure in all cases that the behavior is brought to an end, that the effects on the complainant and the community are remedied, and that Moravian University acts to reasonably prevent recurrence. The Equal Opportunity and Title IX Coordinator is also responsible to assure that training is conducted annually for all advocates, investigators, process advisors, hearing officers, panelists and appeals officers that ensures a fair and impartial process. Training focuses on sexual assault (inclusive of rape), sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence (inclusive of dating and domestic violence), and stalking, retaliation and other behaviors that can be forms of sex or gender discrimination covered by Title IX and the Clery Act. Training provides a foundation for all stakeholders in the process to protect the safety of victims, ensure due process, uphold the rights of both parties, ensure compliance with Title IX regulations, and promote accountability for those who commit offenses.

Title IX records are maintained to ensure privacy in accordance with Pennsylvania law and the federal FERPA statute. Information is shared internally only between administrators who need to know and with the highest possible degree of privacy in relation to any accommodations or measures afforded to a victim, except to the extent necessary to provide them. Investigative evidence is shared equitably with the parties in compliance with federal Title IX regulations. Any public release of information to comply with the open crime logs or timely warning provisions of the Clery Act will not release the names of victims or information that could easily lead to a victim's identification.

In any complaint of sexual violence, sexual assault (inclusive of rape), sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence (inclusive of dating and domestic violence), and stalking or other sex or gender-based discrimination covered under Title IX, the reporting party and responding party are entitled to the same opportunities for a support person or advisor of their choice throughout the process, including any meeting, conference, hearing or other procedural action. The rights of the parties are outlined in detail in Appendix A of the Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Non-Discrimination Policy at https://www.moravian.edu/policy/harassment-discrimination.

Once complete, the parties will be informed, in writing, of the outcome, including the finding, the sanctions (if any) and the rationale therefore. Delivery of this outcome to the parties will occur simultaneously and without undue delay between notifications. All parties will be informed of the Moravian University appeal processes, and their right to exercise a request for appeal. Should any change in outcome occur prior to finalization, all parties will be timely informed in writing, and will be notified when the outcome becomes final. Incidents that fall under section 106.30 of Title IX are resolved using the grievance procedures outlined in Process A. Any other incidents outside the scope of 106.30 of Title IX but within the Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Non-Discrimination Policy are resolved using the procedures outlined in Process B. Informal resolution options are also available as an alternative to a formal investigation and hearing. All processes are described in detail at https://www.moravian.edu/policy/harassment-discrimination.

In an effort to reduce the risk of the crimes of sexual violence, inclusive of sexual assault (inclusive of rape), sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence (inclusive of dating and domestic violence), and stalking occurring among its students, Moravian University utilizes a range of campaigns, strategies and initiatives to provide awareness, training, education, risk reduction, and prevention programming.

It is the practice of Moravian University to offer programming to prevent sexual assault (inclusive of rape, whether by a stranger or known assailant), sexual harassment, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence (inclusive of dating and domestic violence), and stalking each year. Educational programs are offered to raise awareness for all incoming students and employees, and are often conducted during new student and new employee orientation and throughout an incoming student's first semester. These programs and others offered throughout the year and include strong messages regarding not just awareness, but also primary prevention (including normative messaging, environmental management and bystander intervention), and discuss relevant institutional policies, as well as the Pennsylvania definitions of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking and consent in reference to sexual activity.

Bystander engagement is encouraged through safe and positive intervention techniques and by empowering third-party intervention and prevention such as calling for help, using intervention-based apps, identifying allies and/or creating distractions.

Prior to their arrival on campus, all incoming students (first-year students, transfers, graduate students, and adult learners) must complete an online learning program which addresses critical issues students face in college including sexual violence and alcohol/drug use/abuse. All employees must also complete annual training related to Title IX and mandatory reporting obligations, as well as regular training on harassment/discrimination prevention and the protection of minors.

Programs hosted mainly on the Bethlehem campus but open to students from the Lancaster campus offer information on risk reduction that strive to educate and empower students on how to recognize warning signals and minimize risk of attack, and do so without victim-blaming approaches. Throughout the year, ongoing awareness and prevention campaigns are directed to students and employees, including faculty, often taking the form of campaigns, emails, guest speakers and events such as the Take Back the Night march and rally, It's On Us campaign, One Love Escalation workshop, Denim Day campaign to end victim-blaming, and several events for Domestic Violence Awareness Month in October and Sexual Assault Awareness Month in April. These efforts are often collaborative among Student Life offices, Equal Opportunity and Title IX, other campus departments, and student organizations. Additionally, MOUs are in place with the local rape crisis center (through the YWCA of Lancaster) and domestic violence shelter (DV Services of Lancaster) to provide training and education programming to the campus, as well as consult on the development of policies, response protocol, and victim support services.

The Equal Opportunity and Title IX Coordinator disseminates policy and trains all mandatory reporters on their reporting obligations under federal law.

In March 2026, Moravian University was awarded a $40,000 grant from the Governor's Office and the Pennsylvania Department of Education through the 2026-2027 It's On Us PA initiative, supporting efforts to prevent and respond to sexual violence on campus. As one of 43 institutions statewide to receive funding, Moravian is using the grant to enhance educational programming on consent, bystander intervention, and healthy relationships; expand training for faculty and staff; and support student-led awareness initiatives. The university's Equal Opportunity and Title IX Office, Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS), Peers and Wellness (PAW), and the Gender Equity Club will collaborate with campus and community partners to implement these strategies as part of its ongoing commitment to fostering a safe, inclusive, and supportive environment.

All persons are encouraged to report any instance of sexual violence to the ADVOCATES for Survivors of Sexual Violence at 484 764-9242 (24 hours), to the Equal Opportunity and Title IX Coordinator (in person, by mail, email, phone or using the online reporting form), or to a primary support provider such as a representative of the Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS), Health Services, Chaplain(s), the MUPD, or the Office of Student Life. Offenses to be reported include those perpetrated by other students, faculty, staff, other members of the University community, or non-members. Individuals of any gender may experience and report sexual violence and male Advocates are made available upon request. If the survivor is a part of the LGBTQIA+ community, they may request specific support. Survivors have the option to remain anonymous when contacting the Advocate hotline. A student wishing to officially report such an incident may do so by contacting the Moravian University Equal Opportunity and Title IX Coordinator:

Becki Achey, Equal Opportunity and Title IX Coordinator

Victims of sexual violence are likely to feel a broad range of emotions. These violent acts are not their fault. It is important for victims to seek support to help them through this traumatic event. Friends, family, counselors and the ADVOCATES for Survivors of Sexual Violence at 484 764-9242 (24 hours), can provide such support and help victims to seek out the attention and help that they need.

If you have been sexually assaulted, go to a safe place. Do not wash. Seek medical attention within 72 hours. See additional information below.

Victim Services

To report an offense, if you or someone you know has had an unwanted sexual experience, please call the ADVOCATES for Survivors of Sexual Violence at 484 764-9242 (24 hours). A female Advocate will answer and can have a male Advocate call you back quickly at your request.

For counseling, contact the ADVOCATES for Survivors of Sexual Violence at 484 764-9242 (24 hours); additional resources include the Counseling Center (610 861-1510), the 24-hour hotline of Crime Victims Council (610 437-6611), or Spirituality and Inclusion (610 861-1583). Counseling services are free.

For medical help, contact the ADVOCATES for Survivors of Sexual Violence at 484 764-9242 (24 hours); additional resources include the Health Center (610 861-1567), Lancaster General Hospital (Penn Medicine)- 1-888-544-4636 or Penn State Health Lancaster-1-223-287-9000. Ask for a SAFE or SANE nurse, who is specially trained to work with victims of rape and sexual assault. OTHER REQUIRED STATEMENTS

Registered Sex Offenders

Moravian University does not have formal policies concerning the admission of students with a criminal record; however, applicants are asked to list any criminal convictions. If an applicant indicates a prior criminal conviction, the institutions will take the matter under consideration in the application process.

Criminal background and child abuse clearances must be provided by all new employees. A Motor Vehicle Records check is conducted on all employees who are required to operate any institution-owned motor vehicle as a condition of their employment. Additional clearances may be required depending upon the nature of the employee's role on campus. Any employees who interact directly with minors must undergo new clearances every 5 years under PA law. Training on Title IX, the protection of minors and mandatory reporting of harassment, discrimination and sexual violence, and mandatory reporting is provided to all new employees upon and to all current employees annually. Training on the protection of minors and mandatory reporting of harassment, discrimination is provided at minimum every three years.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania requires sex offenders to register with police in the jurisdiction in which they live, work or study. In addition to the federal database, the Pennsylvania State Police are authorized to create and maintain a state registry of sexual offenders, Sexually Violent Deviate Children, and Sexually Violent Predators. The Pennsylvania State Police Megan's Law Website contains information concerning the registry of sexual offenders, a searchable database, and registry information such as tiers of offenses, length of registration, and any community notification requirements. This information can be found at http://www.pameganslaw.state.pa.us/.

Disclosure of Results of Disciplinary Proceedings

Upon request, Moravian University will disclose the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the institutions against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of any crime of violence or a non-forcible sex offense (incest or statutory rape) to the alleged victim or next of kin if the victim is deceased. In cases involving allegations of physical harm, taking of property, or damage or destruction, the right to be notified in writing of the outcome of any Accountability Meeting or Accountability Panel hearing, including any sanctions applied that relate to the reporting party. In all other cases involving a reporting party, the reporting party will only receive notification of any sanctions applied that relate to the reporting party.

MISSING STUDENTS POLICY STATEMENT

Missing Student Notification Policy

This Missing Student Policy is established in compliance with the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, to promote the safety and well-being of Moravian University students residing in on-campus housing at Moravian University[1]. The Policy outlines the procedures for registration, investigation, determination, and notification when a student is reported missing.

Student Awareness and Contact Registration:

1) Confidential Contact Registration: Students residing in on-campus housing have the option to register a confidential contact person who will be notified if they are determined to be missing for more than 24 hours. Registration is voluntary, but strongly encouraged. If students have not registered a confidential contact person, the University will still notify local law enforcement and may contact the student's emergency contact if it determines that the student is missing.
   a) Bethlehem campus: Registration may be completed through the Student Life Office when picking up a room key.
   b) Lancaster campus: Registration may be completed following the online registration process below.

[1] References to Moravian University also include Moravian students residing in University housing on the Lancaster campus.

c) Online registration: Students may also complete their registration online and may update this information at any time.

2) Information Access: Only authorized campus officials and Moravian's Campus Police (and other law enforcement officers, as necessary) will have access to the confidential contact information.

Notification Timelines:

3) Confidential Contacts and Law Enforcement: Moravian University will notify the confidential contact designated by the student, as well as the appropriate law enforcement agency, no later than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing.

4) Parents/Guardians Notification: For students under 18 years of age who are not emancipated, the University will notify the custodial parent or guardian within 24 hours of determining that the student is missing.

Immediate Referral of Official Reports:

5) Mandatory Referral: The University may be notified of a missing student through various channels by any member of the University staff or student body. Any official report of a missing student must be reported immediately to Campus Police.

Procedures for Investigation, Determination, and Notification:

6) Investigation Steps: Upon receiving a missing person report, Campus Police will initiate an investigation to determine the student's status. This includes contacting roommates, friends, faculty, and staff, as well as checking available University information.

7) Escalation Process: If the student is not located and is determined to be missing, the case will be escalated. Within 24 hours, the University will notify the student's confidential contact and/or parents/guardians (for students under 18) per this Policy. Local law enforcement will also be notified, as appropriate.

The Moravian University Hazing Policy, which includes state and federal law definitions of hazing, can be found online on the Institutional Policies page of the web site.

In accordance with the Stop Campus Hazing Act (Public Law No. 118-173 (2024)), institutional hazing statistics will be available in the Annual Security Report (ASR) starting with the 2026 report and will be updated annually. The current ASR can be accessed on the Campus Police web page under "Reports."

Moravian University Campus Hazing Transparency Report

In compliance with the Pennsylvania Timothy J. Piazza Anti-Hazing Law and the federal Stop Campus Hazing Act, Moravian maintains a single report covering all violations of Moravian's Hazing policy and federal or Pennsylvania state laws related to hazing that have been reported to the institution in the past five years. The report is updated twice a year on January 1 and August 1. For each incident, the report will include:

- the name of the subject of the report;
- the date of the incident;
- the date an investigation was initiated;
- the date when the subject was charged with a violation of the hazing policy or federal or state laws related to hazing, if applicable;
- a general description of the violation, including whether it involved the abuse or illegal use of alcohol or drugs, any investigation and findings and, if applicable, penalties or sanctions issued;
- the date on which the matter was resolved and/or a finding of hazing occurred;.
- the date that notice of the outcome was issued to the subject, if applicable.

The report will not include personal identifying information of an individual.

If you or anyone you know has or is experiencing any form of hazing, please contact Moravian University Police Department or The Office Of Student Life so they may provide support and resources.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Act 180 ("Uniform Crime Reporting Act")

The Pennsylvania Uniform Crime Reporting Act requires the release of crime statistics and rates to students and employees, and it requires that those statistics be available to applicants and new employees upon request. The rate is based on the actual number of Full Time Equivalent (FTE) students and employees, which is calculated according to a state-mandated formula. The formula is the number of FTE students plus the number of FTE employees (faculty/staff). The rate is obtained by dividing this figure into 100,000 and multiplying the quotient by the individual statistics to produce the crime rate per 100,000 persons in each category. The index in the table below is based on incidents per 100,000 FTE.

FIRE SAFETY REPORT AND STATISTICS

Moravian University considers students, faculty and staff to be among their most important and valuable assets and strive to protect these institutions and all that it is comprised of, by reducing and attempting to eliminate all potential health and physical hazards.

The Lancaster Fire Department stresses the importance of properly functioning life safety devices and that false alarms put lives at risk for responding emergency personnel. The Lancaster Fire Department and/or Lancaster City Bureau of Police are authorized to enforce all life safety infractions covered by city or state laws which may result in fines or sanctions by MULC.

Fire, Crime, and Alcohol Prevention seminars are conducted periodically throughout the year. The students are encouraged to speak with instructors and view the materials for their safety and well-being. The Environmental Health and Safety Officer also convenes monthly Safety Committee meetings and is responsible for updates to the Emergency Action Plan: Fire and Fire-Related Incidents (FEAP).

The Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) was signed into law in August 2008 and included in this act was the Campus Fire Safety Right-to-Know Act. Pursuant to the act, institutions are required to publish annually a fire safety report that details fire safety systems, policies, practices, and statistics for all on-campus student housing units.

Definitions/Related Information

Fire	A fire, for the purposes of the HEA, is any instance of open flame or other burning in a place not intended to contain the burning or in an uncontrolled manner.
Cause of fire	The factor or factors that give rise to a fire. The causal factor may be, but is not limited to, the result of an intentional or unintentional action, mechanical failure, or act of nature.
Fire-related injury	Any instance in which a person is injured as a result of a fire, including an injury sustained from a natural or accidental cause, while involved in fire control, attempting rescue, or escaping from the dangers of the fire. The term "person" may include students, employees, visitors, firefighters, or any other individuals.
Fire-related death	Any instance in which a person (1) is killed as a result of a fire, including death resulting from a natural or accidental cause while involved in fire control, attempting rescue, or escaping from the dangers of a fire; or (2) dies within one year of injuries sustained as a result of the fire.
Value of property damage	The estimated value of the loss of the structure and contents, in terms of the cost of replacement in like kind and quantity. This estimate should include contents damaged by fire, and related damages caused by smoke, water, and overhaul; however, it does not include indirect loss, such as business interruption.
Fire safety system	Any mechanism or system related to the detection of a fire, the warning resulting from a fire, or the control of a fire. This may include sprinkler systems or other fire extinguishing systems, fire detection devices, stand-alone smoke alarms, devices that alert one to the presence of a fire, such as horns, bells, or strobe lights; smoke-control and reduction mechanisms; and fire doors and walls that reduce the spread of a fire.
Fire drill	A supervised practice of a mandatory evacuation of a building for a fire.

Fire Log

The HEOA requires institutions to maintain a daily fire log which lists the nature of the fire, date, time and general location of each reported fire in on-campus student housing units.

Fire Safety Systems for On-Campus Housing

Student residence halls listed above are equipped with manual pull stations, and hardwired smoke detectors. Upon receiving an alarm, the City of Lancaster Fire Department is dispatched to respond to the scene. During fire alarms, students must evacuate the building, and are only allowed to re-enter after all levels and floors of the building with the alarm are deemed clear.

Moravian University is committed to the safety and wellbeing of the institutions' communities. Annual inspections and testing of fire safety devices, fire extinguishers, and sprinkler systems are conducted through a private contractor in compliance with fire and life safety codes.

Improvements in Fire Safety

In 2022, an Environmental Health and Safety (EHS) Officer was hired, who is responsible for the institutional environmental health and safety program. This role is focused on the development of compliant safety practices and protocol that enhance overall safety culture at the institution. The position works collaboratively with faculty and staff as well as with facilities personnel, campus police, and other key stakeholders. The EHS Officer is responsible for the institutional Fire Emergency Action Plan (FEAP), coordinating fire life safety equipment inspections, evacuation drills, training, and policy review with campus stakeholders and local fire departments. They serve as chair of the Safety Committee, convening campus stakeholders monthly to recognize and eliminate hazards, and minimize potential risks to campus; work to build an active safety culture by establishing best practices, offering training and educational programs, and encouraging risk management and incident reporting; coordinate response and provide investigation to reported environmental/ occupational health and safety concerns; consult in the development of safety and risk management policies and emergency response protocol and assist as appropriate in response to actual incidents; remain current of all compliance requirements related to regulatory agencies including but not limited to OSHA, EPA, and City of Lancaster; maintain proactive, positive relationships with local, state, and federal agencies and serve as point of contact for inspections and inquiries; and perform other duties as necessary or required by the position.

Please find the Link to Prohibited Items located in the Student Handbook : Residence Life & Housing Policies And Regulations.

Fire Safety and Awareness

Students that are away from home especially for the first time should be aware of the hazards and dangers of fire that can occur inside their living space and should exercise caution at all times. As mentioned above, items such as candles, charcoal, and fireworks should not be stored in residential halls. Student Life only permits appliances that are UL listed within the residence halls. All cooking must be in proper designated areas and while these appliances are in use, students must never leave the immediate area.

Remember to keep all aisles of egress open by not placing trash, bicycles, furniture, or other items in common areas that could impede the egress to safety if a fire alarm sounds.

All decorations must not obstruct life saving devices and must be of a non-flammable material and/or fire resistant materials. Placing materials on the ceiling and walls of residence halls is discouraged and the University reserves the right to remove any and all decorations for safety reasons. This includes hanging any items from sprinkler heads.

Fire doors shall not be propped or left open for any reason. If these doors are discovered open and reported to the MUPD, the residents of that section will be held responsible. This is not limited to but includes obstructions such as tape, rocks, cardboard, trash cans, etc.

The use of propane and charcoal grills are permitted with the grill being at least 25 feet from any structure. If charcoal was used for cooking, proper extinguishment and disposal of the ashes should be completed at the end of the cooking to prevent a fire.

The use of fire pits or chimeneas are not permitted because they are included under the category of open burning, which is not permitted within the City of Bethlehem. A special permit is required from the City of Bethlehem Fire Department for any open burn request affiliated with any ceremonial activity.

The use of Fireworks is prohibited on or in any University owned property.

Moravian University is a smoke free University in all buildings and facilities but smoking is permitted at least 20 feet from any building and entrances. All smoking materials and devices must be properly extinguished and discarded in proper containers.

Any violation of the above fire prevention regulations may be subject to disciplinary action.

Moravian University, Lancaster Campus – Evacuation Procedures:

When the fire alarm sounds, act immediately to ensure your safety since the fire alarm system in your building is designed to provide you with early warning and detection that a problem exists and allow you to exit safely during an emergency situation. Never ignore the alarm, assume the alarm is false, or assume it is only a drill.

- Never ignore the alarm, assume the alarm is false, or assume it is only a drill.
- Do not panic.
- Immediately evacuate the building.
- Everyone must evacuate in the safest and closest exit or stairway. Never use an elevator.
- If you have a disability of any type that requires assistance, retreat to the nearest area of refuge such as the stair tower and await assistance from campus police or fire department personnel.
- Have an exit strategy by knowing two ways out, such as another stairway, emergency exit, or fire escape.
- Once outside the building, move away preferably across the street or inside another safe structure.
- Assume there is a fire even though you do not see smoke in your immediate area.
- Do not obstruct fire fighters and fire apparatus by being in the local vicinity.
- If the incident is on upper floors, keep out of the hazard zone.
- Once outside, never go back in until the fire department allows re-entry.
- Call 911 once you are out safely and have a phone.
- If you know someone is still inside, contact the MUPD and provide the last known location where last seen.
