

You were initially able to skip questions pertaining to assets on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) when you first submitted it. However, after corrections made to your application, you are now required to provide asset information in order to finalize your financial aid eligibility for the 2023-2024 academic year. Please complete the form in its entirety and return to the Office of Financial Aid Services for processing. Upon receipt of this form, we will update your FAFSA.
