Medicine and What Matters in the End

Atul Gawande

Author of “Being Mortal” Medicine and What Matters in the End

Join InFocus for a free film screening of the PBS FRONTLINE documentary Being Mortal, followed by a panel discussion. Based on surgeon and author Atul Gawande’s best selling book, the documentary explores the realities and relationships of people facing terminal illness.

The panel will feature medical, religious, legal, nursing, and social work professionals who work with terminally ill patients and their families. Panelists will reflect on their experiences as well as the themes in the documentary.

Attendees can purchase Gawande’s book at Moravian Book Shop with a 15% discount at the time of purchase. Bethlehem Public Library has multiple copies of Gawande’s book in print, e-book, and audio CD format.
