

Tuition Exchange

at Moravian University for Incoming Students

What is Tuition Exchange?

Tuition Exchange (TE) is a scholarship opportunity for dependents of eligible faculty and staff members who are employed at Tuition Exchange member schools. That means, if your parent or guardian is determined as an eligible employee by the school at which they work, you could receive a tuition exchange offer—helping you achieve your undergraduate degree at a participating institution!

If you're thinking about applying to Moravian University, your parent or guardian must be an eligible employee at a Tuition Exchange member school. Then, you can apply to receive a tuition exchange offer to attend Moravian and experience all that our campus has to offer!

Remember to check each institution's website you're planning to apply to, as specific Tuition Exchange information differs by school.

TUITION EXCHANGE IS A COMPETITIVE PROCESS AND IS NOT A GUARANTEED EMPLOYEE BENEFIT OR SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY.

Who is eligible for Tuition Exchange at Moravian?

Moravian makes new tuition exchange offers to a maximum of three students each academic year. Offers are first made to incoming first-time freshmen and the remaining openings are offered to incoming transfer or returning students.

How does a family apply for Tuition Exchange at Moravian?

- PARENTS: Check with your HR department to confirm you're *eligible.
- STUDENTS: Complete the application for admission to Moravian at moravian.edu/admissions/first-year. Then, apply for tuition exchange online at tuitionexchange.org. The tuition exchange application must be submitted no later than January 1, 2027.
- PARENTS AND STUDENTS: Complete the 2027-28 FAFSA at studentaid.gov.

Eligibility for TE through an employer does not guarantee that you'll be offered TE by Moravian. The date of completion of each step is considered in the selection process. Initial offers are announced to eligible students around February 1, 2027.*
