

Accounting

The courses making up the Accounting major are chosen not only to prepare you with the accounting knowledge you need, but also to provide you with the business knowledge necessary to better understand the use of accounting information in decision-making.

This program prepares you to make more knowledgeable recommendations to employers and clients and makes you a valuable member of the management team.

Accounting Major Courses

Co-Requisite Requirements:

- Principles of Economics
- Financial Accounting
- Principles of Management
- Statistics

Core Business Courses:

- Business and Society
- Financial Management for Business
- Management Strategy and Policy

Specialized Accounting Courses:

- Accounting Information Systems
- Cost Accounting
- Intermediate Accounting I
- Intermediate Accounting II
- Advanced Accounting
- Auditing
- Plus one unit of accounting electives such as:
  - Current Topics in Accounting
  - Not-for-Profit and Government Accounting
  - Business Valuation
  - Income Tax Accounting
  - Any other offered accounting elective

General Education and Elective Courses

A Moravian College baccalaureate degree requires 32 course units (128 credits) of study. The course units are grouped into general education courses, co-requisite requirements, core business courses, accounting major courses, and general elective courses.

The Comenius general education curriculum of 10 units, required of all bachelor's degree-seeking students, will help you to think critically, obtain knowledge, look at issues from several perspectives, gain understanding and master the skills needed to compete in the economic and cultural climate of the 21st century.

General elective courses round out your liberal arts education. You may take additional accounting courses to fulfill some of the 8 units of general electives required for the baccalaureate degree.

Inform your advisor if you have prior college credits that may transfer to Moravian.

The Learning Environment

At Moravian College, you'll enjoy:

- Courses taught by caring and knowledgeable teachers as well as assistance provided days and evenings by the Center for Information Technology, the Reeves Library, and the Writing Center staffs.
- A learning community that values your real-world experience
- A deeper understanding of the ethical dimensions of your field and its connection to the challenges facing our society.

Moravian College encourages persons with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. If you anticipate needing any type of accommodation or have questions about the physical access provided, please contact us at least one week prior to the event.

Moravian College is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and is an institutional member of the Association for Continuing Higher Education. We are also members of the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP) and the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) International. Moravian College is a welcoming community that embraces and values the diversity of all members of the campus community. We acknowledge the uniqueness of all individuals, and we seek to cultivate an environment that respects, affirms, and defends the dignity of each member of the community. Moravian College complies with all federal and state laws regarding nondiscrimination in recruitment, admission, and employment of students, faculty, and staff. The Comenius Center Office, however, reserves the right to deny registration privileges to an individual whose conduct might interfere with the College's exercise of its educational mission or its responsibility to its members. Inquiries concerning this policy may be directed to the Vice President for Administration, Moravian College, Bethlehem, PA 18018, 610-861-1360.

2010 08

