

Lehigh Valley Law Day – How to Prepare for the Fair Tips

How to Prepare for the Fair

- Do your research! Be sure to look up all of the schools attending and be prepared to ask thoughtful questions.
- Prepare an “elevator speech” so you are confident when approaching tables.
- Plan your day-be sure to leave enough time for travel and parking so you are not rushed.
- Talk to your pre-law advisor and search online about how to best prepare for a law school fair!

Day of the Fair

- Dress professionally-business casual is fine but don't wear jeans, sweats, etc. Make sure to wear comfortable shoes!
- Use your time wisely and talk to as many recruiters as possible.
- Take information about programs and take notes.
- Make sure to have a good handshake and eye contact.
