

EMAIL COMMUNICATION

All electronic communication must be sent both to and from a Moravian University email account. Students should check their email daily for program and university updates. Professional communication is required at all times, including respectful language, proper grammar, and a professional tone in all messages to faculty, staff, peers, and clinical partners.