A Moravian College baccalaureate degree requires 32 course units (128 credits) of study. The course units are grouped into general education courses, core art courses, art major courses, and general elective courses.

The Comenius general education curriculum of 10 units, required of all bachelor’s degree-seeking students, will help you to master the skills needed to understand and compete in the economic and cultural climate of the 21st century. Inform your advisor if you have prior college credits that may transfer to Moravian.

General electives round out your liberal arts education. You may take additional art courses to fulfill some of the 10 units of general electives required for the baccalaureate degree.
