

MORAVIAN UNIVERSITY

Employee/Trustee/Student/Intern

Confidentiality Policy

It is understood that during one's employment, association with, or enrollment at MORAVIAN UNIVERSITY (Moravian University & Moravian Theological Seminary), one may have access to confidential information regarding trustees, students, employees and/or the business of MORAVIAN UNIVERSITY. It is also understood that one has a duty to maintain the confidentiality of all such information and agree to uphold this obligation. One must acknowledge that this duty includes a responsibility not to share any such information with any unauthorized third persons, and agree to uphold this obligation, as well.

It is understood and agreed that if one shares any such confidential information in violation of this policy or the law, the employment or association with, and/or enrollment at the University, and/or the Seminary, will be terminated. It is understood that such a violation could result in civil and/or criminal action by MORAVIAN UNIVERSITY. One must be aware that this obligation of confidentiality survives one's current association with MORAVIAN UNIVERSITY.

Revised 3/2023