

TAKE community
CARE health
& safety
TAKE are ACTION everyone's responsibility

If you or someone you know has experienced unwanted sexual contact, including intimate partner violence or stalking, or if you have questions about something that happened to you or a friend, call or text:

The ADVOCATES for Survivors of Sexual Violence

484.764.9242 (24 hours)

Only female advocates will be reached at this number.
You may request to speak with a male advocate by calling or texting this number.

Moravian College's current team of advocates includes:

Female Advocates: Pam Adamshick, Allison Bloom, Sarah Coelho, Angie Fraleigh, Lori Hoffman, Michelle Koch, Rebecca May,
Meg Mikovits, Susan Morelock, Alyson Remsing, Sabrina Terrizzi, Belinda Waller-Peterson, and Stacey Zaremba

Male Advocates: Jesse Baumann, John Mikovits, and Jeff Ykoruk

The advocates are trained and available to provide 24-hour assistance during the academic year to:

- Listen and support you
- Answer questions and provide information
- Explain campus and criminal reporting and resolution options
- Accompany you to medical treatment
- Assist you with academic needs

You are not alone. It was not your fault. Help is available.
Visit moravian.edu/takecare for more information.