THE OFFICE OF STUDENT DEVELOPMENT NEEDS YOU!

DO YOU WANT TO HELP MORAVIAN UNIVERSITY BECOME A MORE EQUITABLE AND JUST PLACE FOR ALL STUDENTS?

APPLY TO BE A PART OF THE DISCIPLINE REVIEW COMMITTEE!

What is the Discipline Review Committee?

The Discipline Review Committee (DRC for short) is a group of trained Moravian community members who make determinations in conduct cases that The Office of Development thinks would be best heard in a hearing format.

Who serves on the DRC?

Moravian University Faculty, Staff, and Students

How often would I need to be available?

Most of the time, you need to be available when there is a case to hear. While it's an important role, we only require you to review case information up to a week in advance and then attend hearings. There is one training that is mandatory and optional development workshops during the semester.

What do I need to apply?

- Completed Application
- Interview (to be scheduled)
- At least 2.0 GPA

WHERE DO I APPLY?

SCAN THIS QR CODE

APPLY ON OUR WEBSITE

You can find the application under the "Get Involved" menu option
